RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Optimize Cost Structure: Given the rising expenses, the company should focus on optimizing its cost structure by renegotiating contracts with suppliers, reducing unnecessary expenses, and exploring ways to improve operational efficiency.
2. Invest in Growth Initiatives: With a strong financial position and increasing revenue growth, the company should invest in growth initiatives such as expanding product offerings, entering new markets, or acquiring complementary businesses.
3. Monitor Cash Flow: The company should continue to monitor its cash flow closely and ensure that it maintains a healthy net cash position to support future growth and investments.
